VALLEY NEWS

This week we complete our home League fixtures with a match against Bolton Wanderers tonight, and the visit of promotion chasing Watford to The Valley, on Saturday.

Our two remaining away League games are at Oldham next Tuesday and Cambridge United on Saturday, 8th May which means we finish the season a week ahead of most of the other clubs.

Tonight's game has been brought forward from Saturday 15th May in order that work can start on new drainage under the pitch and we are grateful to our visitors from Lancashire for agreeing to the change.

Bolton are in fact playing in London again on Saturday at Queens Park Rangers and are staying over in town until this game.

Bolton have been involved in a relegation battle for most of the season and lost 3-0 to fellow strugglers Orient on their last visit to London recently.

Last Saturday they took on Crystal Palace at Burnden Park in a vital game for them and they will be looking for points again tonight to help their cause.

Our final home League game with Watford on Saturday could provide us with our biggest home gate of the season as Watford are poised to go into the First Division under the guidance of manager Graham Taylor.

These notes had to be written before our League game at Barnsley on Saturday but we can only hope that the team returned to winning form after a disappointing run of results.

We have failed to win any of our last three home games despite being on top in all of them and it looks as though the team will finish in a midway position in the Second Division table.

The side were 2-0 up against Cardiff in the first half but two mistakes by goalkeeper Nicky Johns let the visitors in for a late point.

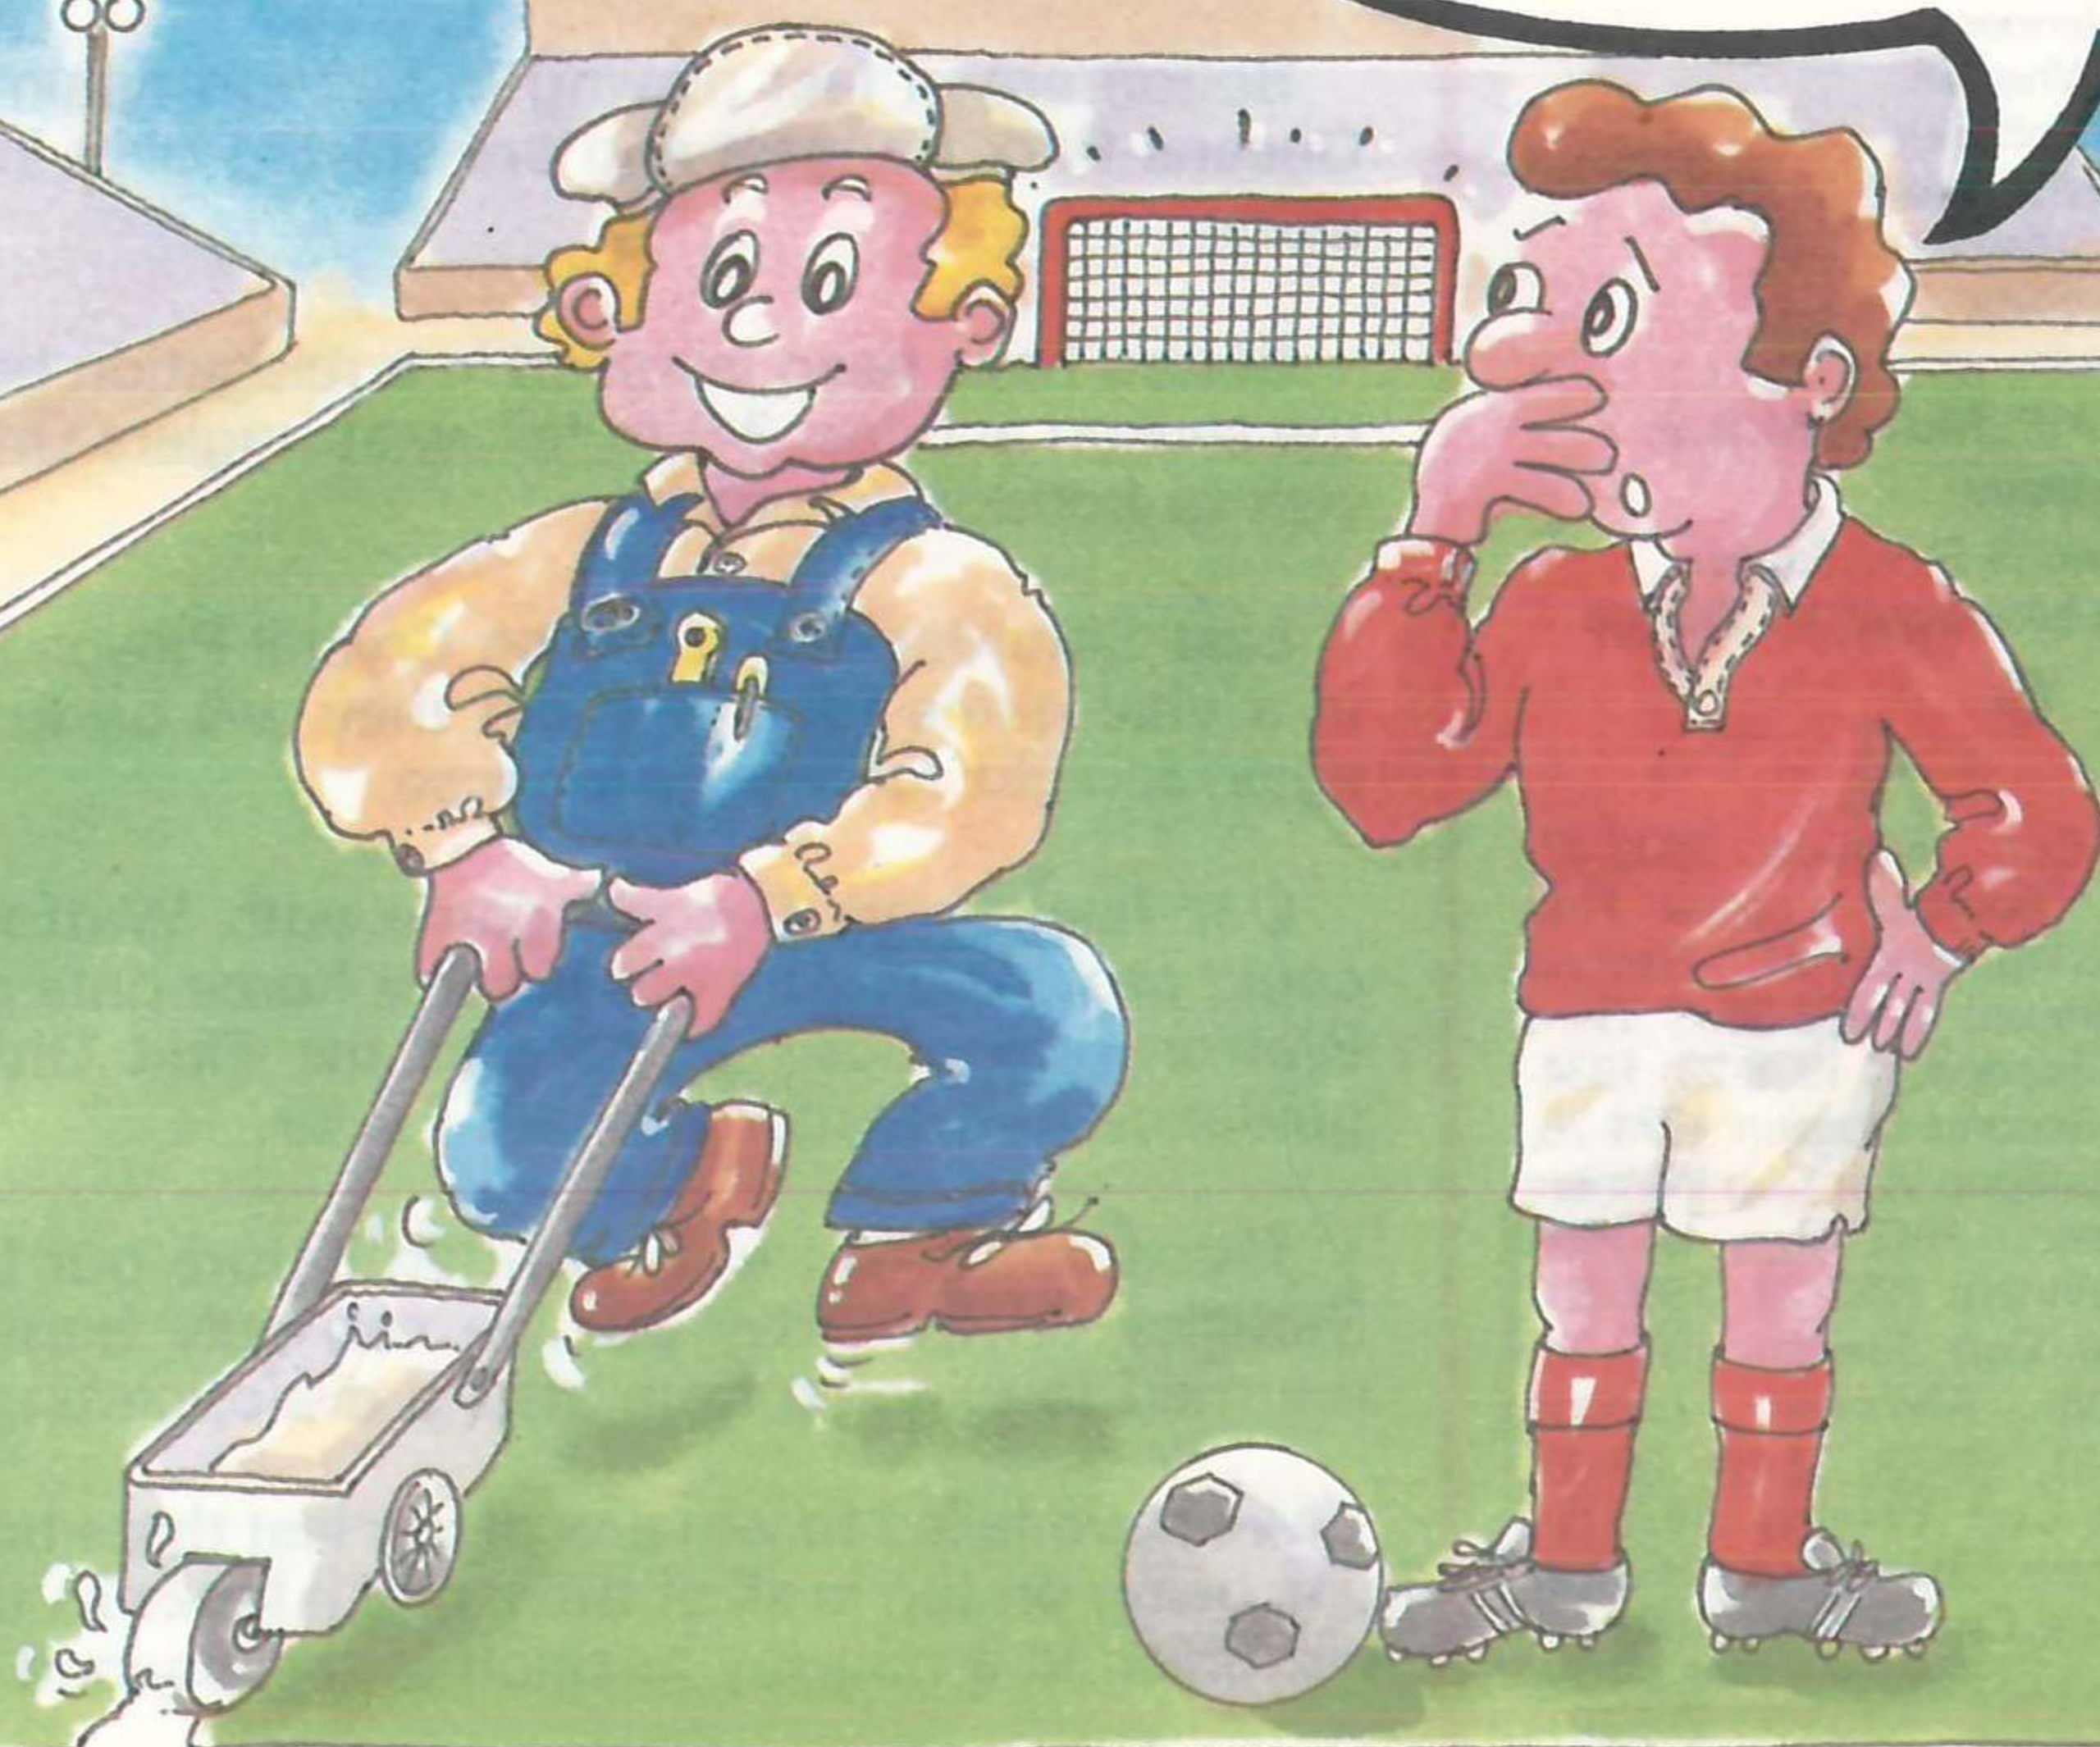

Against Rotherham a Paul Walsh goal put us in front but we let the Yorkshiremen in for two late goals to snatch the three points from us.

Our congratulations go to the reserve team who have won the Midweek League title under the captaincy of Steve Harrison and more details of their achievement are contained elsewhere in this magazine.

Today's game is sponsored by MARMAN LTD., an international company in the field of chemicals and commodity food stuffs.

WELCOME TO BOLTON WANDERERS

JIM McDONAGH (Goalkeeper): In his second spell with Bolton. Jim rejoined Wanderers during the summer from Everton after a season at Goodison Park. The former Rotherham keeper was a member of Bolton's Second Division Championship winning side in 1978. Republic of Ireland International.

DENNIS PEACOCK (Goalkeeper): Joined the Wanderers from Doncaster in March 1980. Born in Lincoln. He had a spell with Nottingham Forest. At 6ft 3ins is one of the tallest keepers in the League.

GERRY McELHINNEY (Defender): Signed from Distillery at the beginning of last season, a former Gaelic footballer and amateur boxer, who made his debut for the Wanderers soon after signing. An aggressive, enthusiastic defender.

PETER NICHOLSON (Defender): Signed for the Wanderers from Blackpool for a small fee prior to the 1971-72 season and has proved to be a fantastic bargain. A utility player who always gives a hundred per cent in either defence or midfield.

PAUL JONES (Defender): Paul is a tall, quick-tackling defender who has been a member of the Under-23 and full England squads. He is a commanding player in the air as well as on the ground and has a habit of scoring vital goals. Can also play at fullback with distinction.

PETER REID (Midfield): Joined Bolton from school on Merseyside. Was a regular member of the England Under-21 side which he also skippered. A very talented player who had the misfortune to sustain a severe knee injury which put him out of action for the second half of season 1978-79 and the first half of the 1979-80 season, but recovered to win back a regular place.

LEN CANTELLO (Midfield): Len cost the Wanderers a record £350,000 fee when he signed from West Bromwich Albion in June 1979. He is the sort of midfield player who delights in stamping his authority on a game. Always looking for a chance to attack he is an exciting player with an eye for seeing an unexpected opening.

MIKE DOYLE: Veteran former Manchester City and England defender, joined the Wanderers in January from Stoke City for a "nominal fee". Doyle made a dramatic start to his Bolton days conceding an own goal on his debut and being sent off in his second game, but he has brought a steadying influence to the Bolton line-up and his composure has been a tremendous asset prized by his manager.

TONY HENRY (Fullback/Midfield): Signed for £125,000 from Manchester City. Tony was one of the unsung heroes of Manchester City revival last season. He came on as substitute in Manchester City F.A. Cup Final appearance in May. Versatile player who is bound to be a useful acquisition to the club.

WAYNE FOSTER: A former local schoolboy, Foster came on to the Wanderers' scene earlier this season and has commanded a regular place in the attack in recent weeks. Recognised at representative level, Foster got his first England

Youth cap in Scotland in a European Championship qualifier.

ALAN GOWLING (Striker): Signed for a £120,000 fee from Newcastle United three seasons ago after four years at St. James' Park. Started his career with Manchester United and then moved to Huddersfield. Has won tremendous respect both on and off the field and is a leading light in the Professional Footballers Association of which he is the current Chairman.

JOHN THOMAS (Striker): A speedy striker, John was given his chance in League Football when he joined Everton. Signed for the Wanderers on a free transfer in June 1980 on the recommendation of his former team-mate Brian Kidd.

CHRIS THOMPSON (Striker): A speedy attacker with plenty of skill, Chris joined the Wanderers from school. He became an apprentice and then went on to sign full professional forms in July 1977. Has represented England at Youth Level.

MIKE CARTER (Forward): A highly talented striker with an ability to score spectacular goals. Mike had a spell on loan with Mansfield in the 78-79 season making 18 League appearances and scoring four goals. He made his League debut for Wanderers against Bristol City in December 1979 and scored his first League goal later that month in the dying seconds to snatch a home point against Everton at Burnden Park after coming on as substitute.

MIKE BENNETT (Defender): A member of the successful England Youth Squad which won the 1980 European Youth Championships in East Germany, Mick is one of the most promising youngsters in the game. Has played at fullback and in midfield. Bolton born, he joined the Wanderers as a schoolboy.

DAVID HOGGAN (Midfield): Joined Bolton from Tynecastle Boys Club, Edinburgh as an apprentice in November, 1977 and signed full professional forms in August, 1979. Made his League debut in the First Division at Bristol City in April, 1980. Won International recognition with the Scottish Under-21's Squad last season.

IAN BRENNAN (Defender): Cost Bolton Wanderers a bargain £25,000 when he signed from Lancashire neighbours Burnley last season. A cultured leftback who can also play in midfield or in the centre of defence. Ian made more than 190 League appearances for the Turf Moor club before joining the Wanderers.

STEVE WHITWORTH (Defender): Joined Bolton for a bargain £25,000 from Sunderland in October. A stylish, experienced fullback, with well over 400 League appearances behind him, Whitworth earned seven England caps in his Leicester City days.

JEFF CHANDLER (Forward): A livewire winger with an abundance of skill and control, Jeff cost Wanderers a modest £40,000 when he signed from Leeds United in October. The Hammersmith-born lad, who began his League career with Blackpool has won International recognition with the Republic of Ireland.

DO YOU KNOW...

That Charlton Athletic have two young ladies amongst their "ball boys" for home matches at The Valley.

Carole Knott and Susan Treadgold take their place with the boys and retrieve the match ball as quickly as possible when it goes out of play.

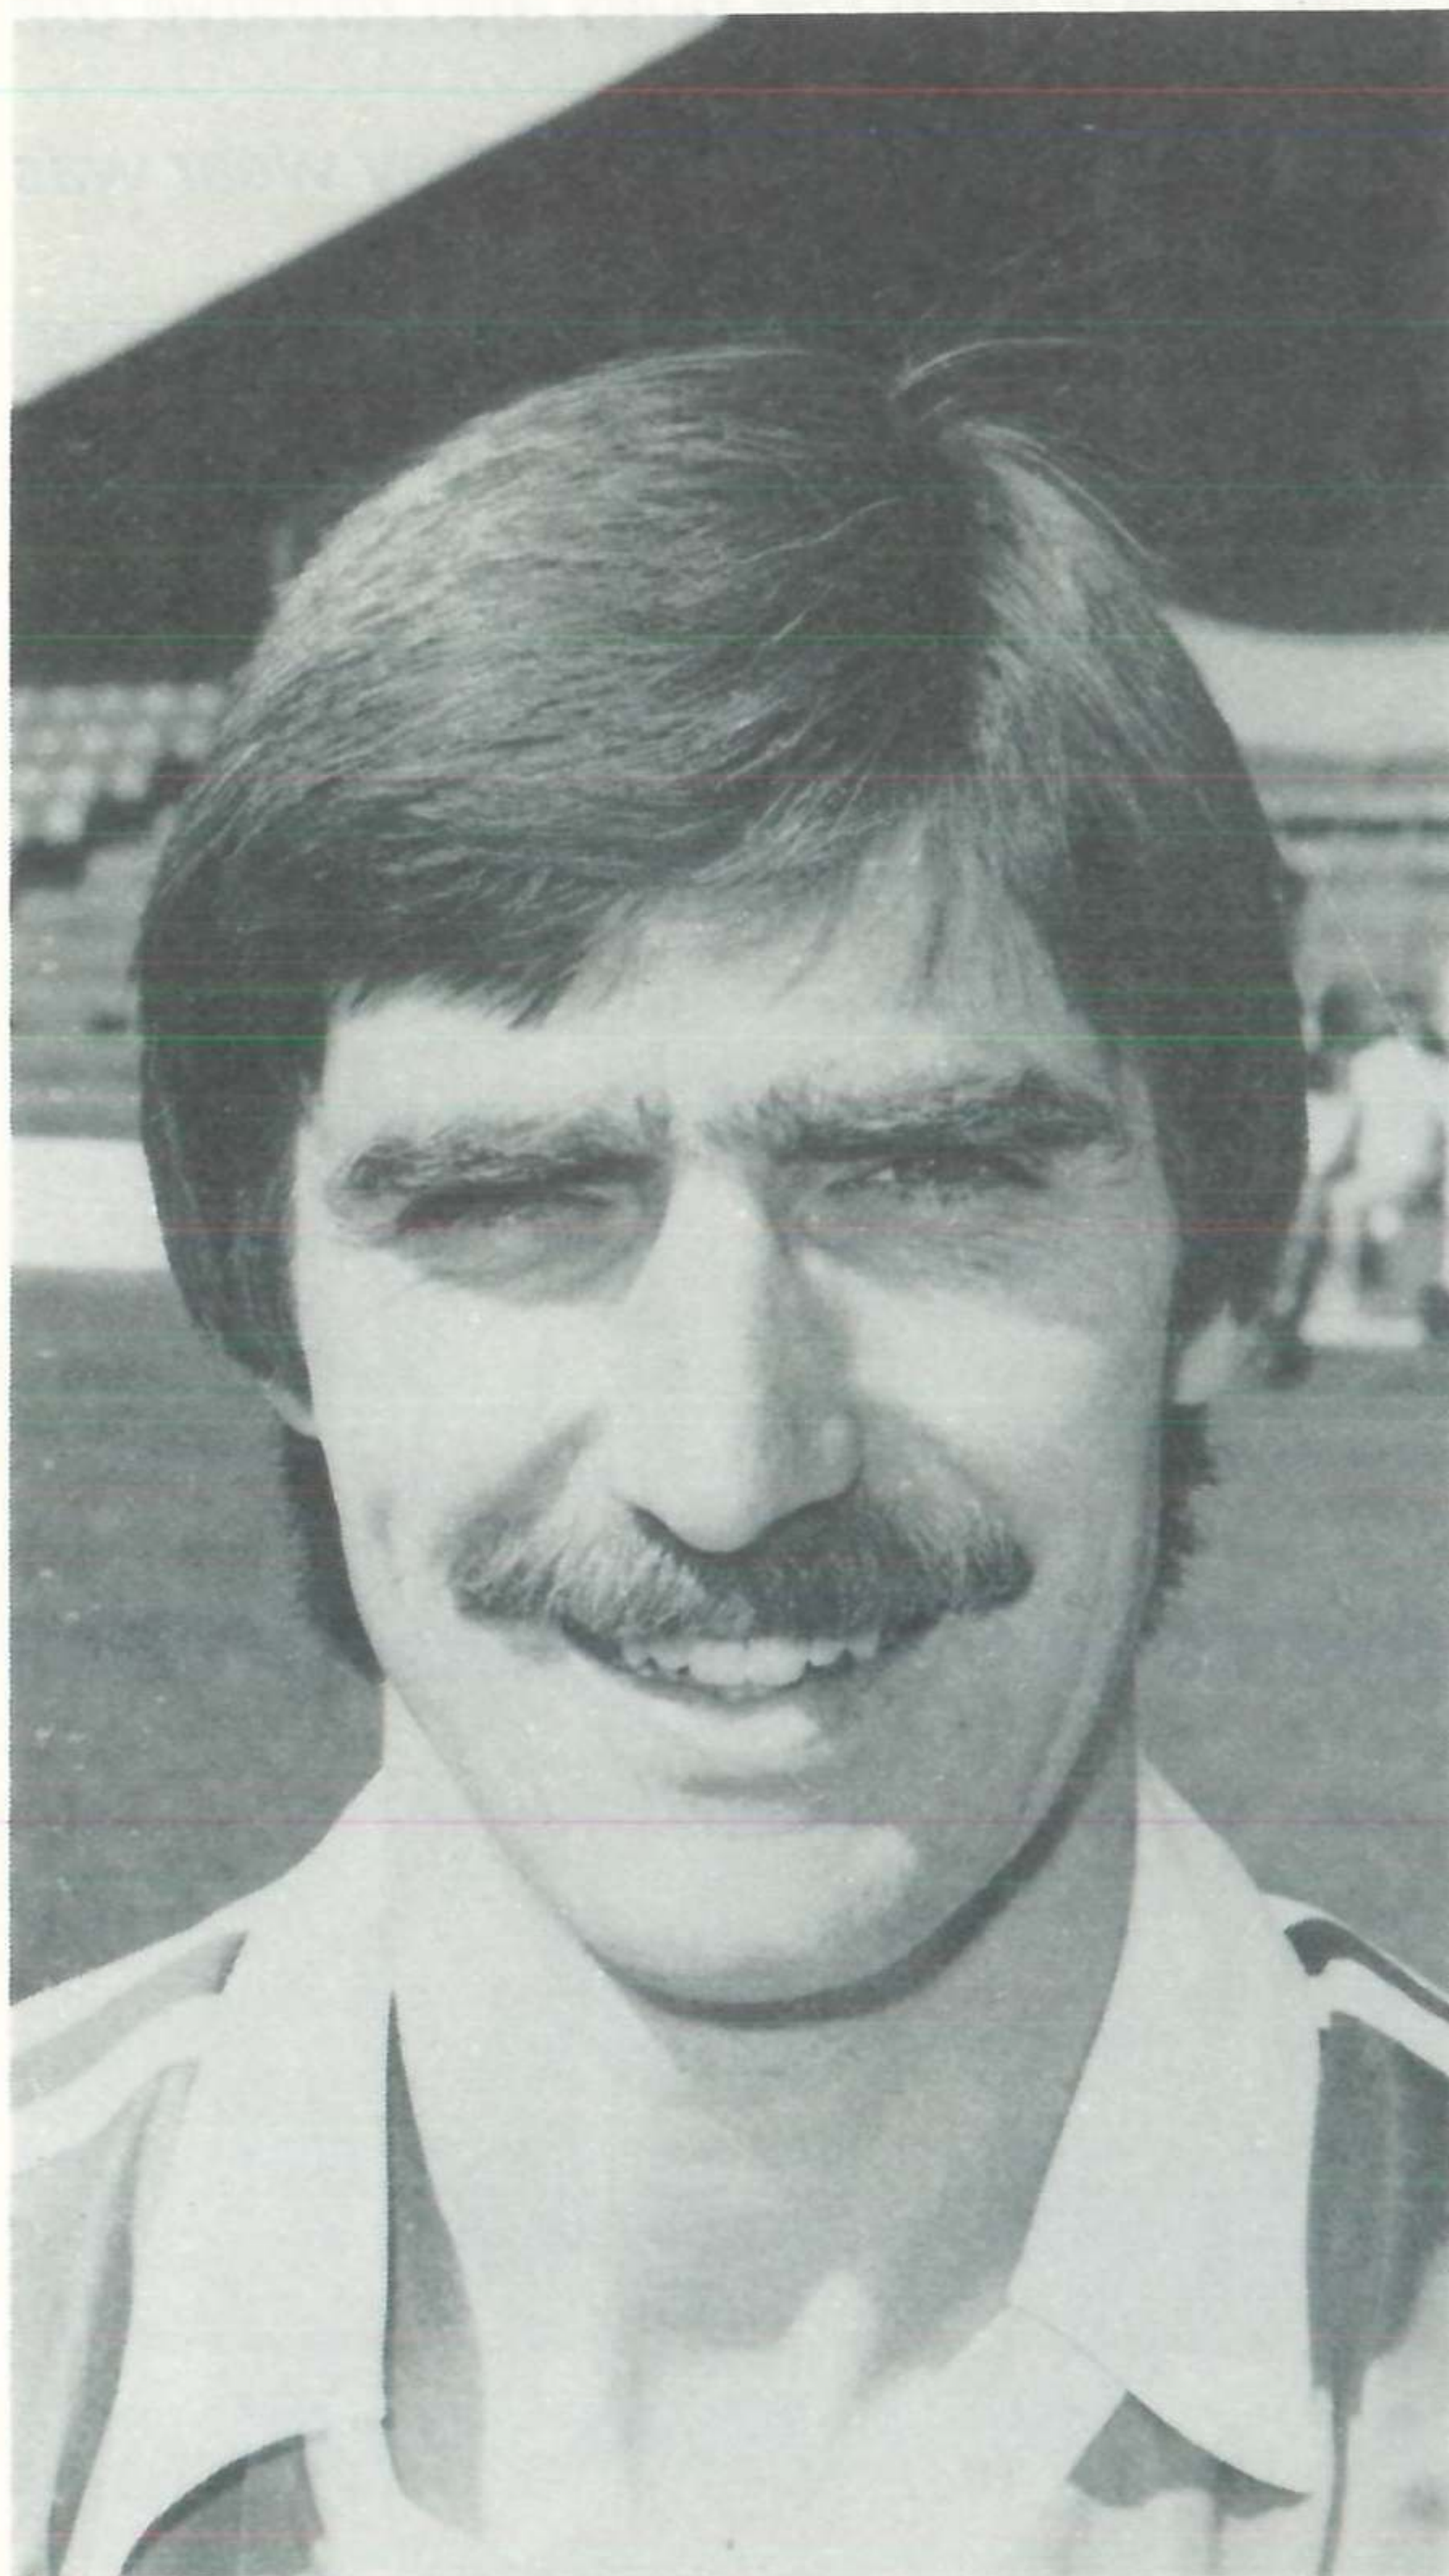

The eight volunteers have been together all the season and the kit they wear was donated by Black and White Sports of Crayford.

NEWSREEL

STEVE HARRISON

PRIDE of place this week goes to the club's reserve team who are champions of the Midweek League.

They took the title by beating Brentford 3-0 at Griffin Park on Tuesday last week with goals from Mark Turkington, Les Berry and Jimmy Clare.

The reserves had another match at The Valley last Thursday when Wimbledon were the visitors.

The League trophy will be presented to the Charlton players at the League annual meeting.

We will have a photograph of the victorious team in our final Match Day Magazine against Watford on Saturday.

The reserves completed their fixtures on Monday when they travelled up to play Peterborough United.

After 24 League games the team had won 16, drawn four and lost four, and were beaten only once since the start of December.

It was a fine achievement to take the title because of the number of changes that inevitably have to be made in the side week by week.

For most of the season the team has been captained by Steve Harrison, who had the misfortune to be carried off with a knee injury in the Brentford game.

The side that took the title at Brentford was: Phillips; Curtis, Clarke, Berry, Harrison, Kay, Gritt, Dickenson, Turkington, Laville, Browne. Subs: Clare and Jacobsen.

★ ★ ★ ★ ★

DURING the winter freeze-up our visitors Bolton Wanderers went to enormous trouble and expense in an attempt to keep playing.

For example when we played up at Burnden Park on 19th December it was reported that 3,000 gallons of oil was burned to feed Bolton's undersoil heating system in order to get the game on.

The match in fact did get played on a day when due to snow and ice only seven League games took place in the whole country.

The crowd of only 5,085 was the lowest at Burnden Park since 1969 but they had the pleasure of seeing Bolton win 2-0 with goals by Jeff Chandler and Tony Henry.

Everybody knows about our own pitch problems during this period when a couple of games were played in very heavy conditions so it is somewhat ironic that groundsman Maurice Banham has been watering the pitch for the last two home games against Cardiff and Rotherham.

Maurice had the automatic hose on the ground before both games to soften up the surface a little and provide a true playing pitch.

SUPPORTERS will have enjoyed the lovely moment at The Valley before the game with Rotherham when the six-year-old mascot Scott Coughlan stole the show.

Just as the teams were about to kick off Scott decided he would have his own little game of football and raced across the field to kick the match ball off the centre circle.

Scott lives a stone's throw from The Valley at Sam Bartram Close — named after our former goalkeeper.

Tonight's mascot Steven Fewell comes from Gravesend and his father Tony is a steward on the main entrance at The Valley on match days.

Tony has been a keen Charlton fan for many years and plays himself every Sunday at full back for a local team Perana.

WHEN Gillingham played Carlisle at Priestfield Stadium on Saturday, Gills boss Keith Peacock, our former captain for many years met up again with Bob Stokoe, now boss of Carlisle and a former manager of Charlton.

Carlisle look like being promoted so we have a long journey to Cumbria next season.

Gillingham have just missed out on promotion but Keith has enjoyed his first season as a manager in the Football League and has four former Charlton players, Dick Tydeman, Colin Powell, Peter Shaw and Ritchie Bowman with him at Priestfield.

GRASS ROOTS

UP THE HADDICKS!

One great advantage that is bestowed on our provincial counterparts in football that is not enjoyed by clubs in the metropolis, is the generous coverage given to them by the regional press and television. One such instance of this occurs in East Anglia, where Ipswich Town and Norwich City, etc., are given splendid service by both Anglia Television and that excellent newspaper, the Eastern Daily Press.

News of the day-to-day affairs at the clubs are reported extensively, which enables them to foster a relationship and project an image with the local community that can only be envied by an area such as London. In the Capital we have to rely on the national newspapers and despite the vast population, have only one evening newspaper that regrettably, does not appear on Saturdays. Our only salvation in this direction, is the interest that is taken in club matters by the not inconsiderable number of weekly papers that circulate in the district.

However, for our recent visit to Carrow Road, we received encouragement from a very unlikely source: to my astonishment, a feature in the Eastern Daily Press carried the headline, UP THE HADDICKS! Obviously this item warranted further investigation and it proved satisfying. The piece was written by Norfolk-based journalist, GEORGE TARGET, an exiled Charlton fan.

MOVING ARTICLE

If space allowed I would have liked to reproduce the truly moving article in full, for the following extracts cannot accurately reflect, or capture, the depth of feeling held by the writer for Charlton Athletic Football Club.

IT BEGAN:

"This afternoon at Carrow Road, Norwich City Football Club will play Charlton Athletic: the Canaries will take on the Haddicks. And though Norfolk is now my adopted county, with Norwich my happy city, there can only be one result for me: Charlton to win by three or four goals . . ."

George then goes on to explain how he came to live in S.E. London in 1945 following being a P.O.W., instead of returning to his native Ireland.

He speaks with warm affection towards the couple with whom he lodged in Greenwich, Bill and Ethel. Bill really sounds quite a character. A former Navy stoker who had boxed as a middle-weight, seems to have had a very colourful life-style, but the centre of his attention is directed towards Charlton Athletic.

"I've followed that perishin' team through thick an' thin, an' when I sink with all hands I'll follow 'em from the stokehold with Old Nick!" George quotes him as declaring on more than one occasion.

Recalling those distant days of the past in S.E. London he goes on:-

"... every home game on a Saturday afternoon we'd go to the match: push on to a crowded tram, and join the cheerful procession along the lower road to Charlton. Mostly men, tens of thousands of us, rough and ready, bright and breezy, free and easy, up Charlton Church Lane, round the streets to the ground, The Valley, Land of Hopes and Glories, the object of all our lawful desires and petitions . . .

Through the turnstile for a couple of bob, clamber up the terraces to our regular patch, lean against the barriers, exchange insults with our best mates, tell the tale, swing the lamp, wait for the teams to come cantering out . . .

And what games! What names!

Stanley Matthews and Tom Finney, the Arsenal and the Wolves, Sam Bartram and Young Charlie and who's that new clogger? Such goals in the sunshine, such corners in the rain, such dribbles down the wings, such centres, such headers, such blinders, such howling that anybody could miss such sitters . . . such wins, such losses . . .

. . . Which is why I'm off to Carrow Road this afternoon, and why I want Charlton to win.

'With any luck', I can hear my dear old Bill saying from his Heaven, 'they might just scramble a perishin' draw!'

Which makes me all the more sad that we lost by five goals to nil.

• I contacted George Target, who apart from his contributions to the Eastern Daily Press, is the author of numerous books. He revealed to me that in one of his novels, The Shop Steward, which depicts working class life in S.E. London, the mythical factory that plays a central role in the story, Campbell's Engineering, is in fact sited at The Valley. He also disclosed that the E.D.P. harbours among the ranks of its staff two other Charlton supporters, Assistant Editor, Ted Bell and Sports Editor, Malcolm Robinson.

PLAYER OF THE YEAR

Just a reminder that voting for Player of the Year, takes place at our next home game v Watford. Tickets for the presentation dance on Saturday, 22nd May, are available from the Supporters' Information Centre, at £2.50 each.

TONIGHT'S MASCOT: STEVEN FEWELL

Five-year-old Steven comes from Gravesend and attends Shears Green School. His interests apart from football include reading, Dr. Who and Cockney stars Chas and Dave. He names his favourite Charlton players as Steve Gritt and Derek Hales. Steven's father is a steward at the players' and officials' entrance of The Valley.

BACKGROUND

After a most frustrating eight months our coloured midfield player Phil Walker is slowly winning his fitness battle.

Phil is confident that he will be fully fit for the start of next season and he will be training during the summer break in order to achieve his goal.

Phil played in the first four matches of the season but was then troubled by a pelvic strain which finally necessitated a serious operation at the end of last year.

A bone graft took place in the lower abdomen — a similar operation to that performed on two other League players, Peter Taylor of Orient and Tony Galvin of Spurs.

Phil started training again but then had a relapse and was ordered a complete rest.

Fortunately that is now all behind him and he is back in light training with no ill effects.

He is on a light programme of jogging with a little bit of tactical play with a football and according to physiotherapist Charlie Hall is making "favourable progress".

"To say I have been disappointed with the way the season has gone for me would be an understatement and I have really missed playing", he said.

"I now feel much happier with the situation and I am determined to be fit for the pre-season matches in August."

Phil has been occupying himself when not playing working on his new house in Ruislip in Middlesex but his first priority is getting back to doing the thing he enjoys most — just playing football.

All Charlton supporters wish Phil well in his final steps back to full fitness and his place in the team next season.

WHY TWO OF THE PLAYERS WILL NEVER MISS THE KICK-OFF

Two of the Charlton team drive SAABs, one of the fastest, safest and most reliable cars on the road. They are also one of the most comfortable cars. So everything being equal the two players in question should be the first on the field and the freshest looking.

LOOKING BACK

with Colin Cameron

There are only eight clubs in our history who we have faced on 50 or more occasions in the League and today we have the pleasure of welcoming one of them — Bolton Wanderers.

For our older supporters, a visit from The Trotters is always a bit special because the famous Lancashire club are one of a band of six clubs who faced us in every season during our long spell in the First Division. For the record, the other clubs are Arsenal, Chelsea, Portsmouth, Sunderland and Wolverhampton Wanderers. It's not surprising therefore that the 56 previous matches (51 League and 5 Cup games) staged between our two clubs have attracted aggregate attendances comfortably in excess of the one million mark.

Looking at our overall League record against Bolton, while it's obviously not as good as it should be — won 17, drawn 8, lost 26 — it is interesting to note that our fortunes against The Trotters deteriorated after our relegation from the First Division.

In those memorable fourteen successive seasons at the top, Charlton's record against Bolton read:

	P	W	D	L	Goals		Pts
					F	A
Home	14	11	2	1	24	12	24
Away	14	3	1	10	14	26	7
Total	28	14	3	11	38	38	31

THE 1923 GIANT KILLERS

Charlton's League history was just over fifteen months old when we started on our Cup run in the 1922/23 season which, to this day, is recognised as one of the greatest giant-killing acts in the glamorous history of the F.A. Cup competition. It was a particularly important year in the history of our great national sport because it saw the birth of Wembley Stadium — built in 300 days at a cost of £750,000.

After overcoming Northampton (2-0) and Darlington (2-1) in 5th and 6th Qualifying Rounds at The Valley, we had the unenviable task of tackling First Division Manchester City at their Hyde Road ground where they had only been beaten once — by Bolton — in three seasons.

The game was 42 minutes old when we secured the lead through ALBERT GOODMAN but our joy was short-lived because the second half was only three minutes old when TOM JOHNSTON equalised for City.

We battled on, however, and shocked the football world by netting the winner seven minutes from the final whistle. Scorer of our goal was heroic skipper ARTHUR WHALLEY who had battled on with a heavily bandaged head after sustaining a bad cut in the 17th minute.

We had ground advantage when we had the privilege of entertaining Preston — the first Division One club to visit our headquarters — in the Second Round. The Preston team had cost £12,000 to assemble — a huge sum in those days! — while our team involved only a bill of £300 which represented the fee paid to Chelsea for BOB THOMSON who was permanently blind in one eye.

Watched by a then record crowd (22,490), Charlton shocked "Proud" Preston with second half goals from GOODMAN and STEPHEN SMITH to record a shock 2-0 victory against a team that had contested the previous year's final against Huddersfield (at Stamford Bridge).

The record "gate" figure established against Preston was shattered just three weeks later! For the Third Round, our visitors were another First Division club, West Bromwich

Albion, and a crowd of 31,489 saw us qualify for the quarter-finals with GOODMAN once again scoring an invaluable goal to give us a 1-0 victory.

Two more triumphs and we would be playing at Wembley, and the public responded by supporting us in their thousands, pushing the record up to 42,033, when Bolton visited us on March 10th, 1923.

Honours remained even in this game until after the interval when DAVID JACK opened the scoring for the visitors.

Charlton, however, refused to give up the struggle and it was during one late attack, with Goodman in a scoring position, when the crowd surged forward with such force that twenty feet of railing collapsed, causing several injuries.

When play resumed, after several minutes stoppage, Bolton safely negotiated the remaining few minutes to win 1-0.

Charlton's glorious Cup run had ended, but with much honour, and history records that Bolton went on to win the first Wembley Final against West Ham — DAVID JACK, who died in September 1958, achieving the honour of striking the first-ever Cup goal on the now hallowed turf.

FIRST LEAGUE MEETING

Charlton's mercurial progress which saw them rise from Third to First Division in two years meant, of course, we were then entertaining all the top clubs in the land and quite frankly far from being overawed by the challenge, we were relishing it with considerable success — the club finally finishing runners-up.

A new record attendance of 68,136 (v Arsenal) had been established which, incidentally, was broken again the following season when our current high (75,031) was set in an F.A. Cup match against Aston Villa.

In our first meeting with Bolton at Burnden Park on December 19th, 1936, we suffered a 2-1 defeat — George Tadman cancelling out MILSOM's goal for The Trotters only for England International RAY WESTWOOD to net the winner.

In the return at The Valley, we finished 1-0 victors thanks to a DON WELSH goal. It is interesting to note that on the same day (April 24th, 1937), Charlton Reserves won 5-3 in a friendly at Yeovil, three of our goals coming from ALEC STOCK who, of course, later managed the Somerset club before moving on to bigger things.

THE "LION OF VIENNA"

The 56 previous matches between our two clubs have produced three instances of a player recording a "hat-trick".

The first occasion was at The Valley on August 19th, 1950 when the great NAT LOFTHOUSE — the "Lion of Vienna" — scored three times and yet finished on the losing side. Our goals in a 4-3 victory were equally shared by SID O'LINN and GORDON HURST.

Nat's first goal was in the back of the net after only ten seconds and it represented the first goal scored in the Football League on what was the opening day of the 1950/51 season.

In all, Lofthouse hit nine goals against Charlton and one of those efforts was scored at Burnden Park on August 27th, 1955 when a STUART LEARY "hat-trick" earned us a 3-1 victory.

The last treble to be scored in a fixture between our two clubs was JIMMY GAULD's in the 3-1 win which completed the "double" over Bolton on Christmas Eve 1955 — RAY PARRY hitting the visitors reply.

SECOND OPINION

TWO MORE "HAT-TRICKS"

At the time of writing, Division leaders Luton hadn't suffered a League defeat at their Kenilworth Road headquarters since they lost to Cardiff on September 22 — seven months ago — and they certainly showed their Championship material when they faced promotion rivals Newcastle on April 17th.

Two goals down after 58 minutes, they scored three in a deadly twenty-one minute spell to record their 21st League win of the season.

All three of their goals were netted by BRIAN STEIN — his first "hat-trick" since his treble against Bristol Rovers at Eastville on December 27th, 1980.

Two of Brian's goals were netted from the spot and with ace penalty-taker DAVE MOSS injured, manager DAVID PLEAT was, no doubt, over-the-moon to find he has another trusty boot on his staff especially as The Hatters have averaged one penalty every three games this season (12 from 35 League matches).

A more orthodox "hat-trick" was netted by Chelsea's CLIVE WALKER on the same day. It was Clive's second treble of the season and it meant that he and ALAN MAYES are now joint leading scorers at Stamford Bridge with 15 goals apiece.

PAUL WALSH HITS GOAL NO. 3,500

Our goal against Rotherham, on April 17th, scored by PAUL WALSH was the 3,500th Charlton have netted in their League history which started with goal No. 1 netted by Irishman Tommy Dowling in our first-ever League match staged at The Valley on August 27th, 1921. In all we've scored 3,845 League and Cup goals and have conceded 4,008. The 4,000 (against) landmark occurred at Carrow Road earlier this month when MARTIN O'NEILL opened the scoring for Norwich.

WATFORD HERE ON SATURDAY

While it's not my direct responsibility to drum up support for Charlton — although I always try to be a good ambassador — I couldn't resist writing a few words about Saturday's big match against Watford.

In common with nineteen other clubs in our Division, we will not be going up this season but, nevertheless, when you are entertaining opposition that have a distinct possibility of reaching the First Division for the first time in their history, it adds an irresistible edge to a game that certainly promises, and let's hope realises, much good entertainment. Watford are sure to be backed up by great vocal support so I hope as many Charlton-minded people are here to shout out The Hornets' fans for this our last, but very special home League match of the season.

ANOTHER STRUGGLE FOR BOLTON

Apart from one bright spell in December and January, when Bolton went five successive matches without losing, this season has been a repetition of the last campaign when The Trotters finished dangerously low in eighteenth position.

Every club looks for a good start but if it doesn't materialise, it can often mean an uphill struggle from the start.

This was the case with Bolton who lost their opening four League matches and have had two other spells where they've suffered four off-the-trot reversals without any comparable string of victories to compensate — hence their precarious position in the Division.

Up to, and including, April 17th, Bolton had netted 32 times in their 37 League matches and twenty of these goals had been equally shared by TONY HENRY and CHRIS THOMPSON.

The twelve other League goals netted by Bolton have been shared by eleven players.

During the same period, Bolton have lost 22 of their 41 League and Cup matches and fifteen of these reversals have been suffered at away venues.

Bolton's three previous matches in London this season produced defeats at Chelsea (0-2), Crystal Palace (0-1), and Orient (0-3).

On the credit side, our visitors have won at Derby (2-0), Sheffield Wednesday (1-0) and Blackburn (2-0). And they've shared the points at Norwich (0-0), Oldham (1-1) and Grimsby (1-1) — all excellent results, you'll agree, which makes Bolton's overall results this campaign all the more perplexing.
